The New Northwest.

DINIWAY PUBLISHING CORPANY, Proprietors

OFFICE-COL PROST & WASHINGTON STREET

TERMS, IN ADVANCE:

ADVIOLATISTICATES INSCRIPTION BETWEEN

FACT, FATE AND FANCY:

they Married Owner than time.

Street, Street, Street, OR SPICE XXXIII.

with is new acquaintance. In spite of dera?" bluned he was growing old, and he began to realize that there was unnglit but annoying emptiness in the possession of so many broad acres, so be was ready for such negotiations as the gentlemanly matrimonial overture of one who and business-like agent of the railroad never could Imagine what love was till [FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.] company saw fit to propose. And while he met you yesterday, but who, now To the Epiron of the New Northwest: that had sheltered Lillian and Grace in their babyhaod, the bargain and sale went on. But she did not dream of offering a protest. Her husband was, to bim. She gloried in self-abnegation for ent." his sake; and, though she was not satished with the results of her teaching so far as one daughter was concerned, she

"Grace is a chip of the old block, Just that could get much ahead o' her," was Grace, rising. her frequent boast, though, it must be Grace had done, her well-meaning but walk." not always consistent mother would chair nervously while his voice trembled in earnest about marrying somebody." out considerable loss and inconvenience, by placing Elinor in a family where in something that would divert her cannot feel that my desire to study womanly character. We cannot resist preceptibly, "how would you like me "But, Dearie, do you love John An- to dispose of it. All this is one of the there were girls, make her sooner forget mind from her trauble.

"You say there are two square-mile Dearie?"

The Captain was nonplussed.

own ears had dessived him. Mr. Malcolm repeated the question.

"I've never been consulted,"

"With your permission?"

asswered my direct query."

on a contracts. I wash my hands of 'em. and closed it. As soon as she was alone, continue all Summer.

sibly he was thinking it would have match him."

"But, do they love each other ?" never whed them."

I shall make it my affair."

she referred him to Grace, who, she said, Into bitterness.

em Nort

PRICE SPEECH, PREE PRESS, FREE PROPER

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1879.

NUMBER 35.

VOLUME VIII.

before the open door, where he was newly-found love, and her husband was met by Grace and conducted into the seconds and regally proud of his levely straightforward question in relation to a band could not hear, topic that concerns me vitally "" "Certainly, Mr. Malcolm. What is fate," Captain Emerson was quite deligited "Are you engaged to mytry Mr. An- with a sympathetic smile.

"No. Who said I was?"

"Your father." "How came be to tell you that?" "I asked him if he would object to the

"With his consent?"

"Year" "Well, you can go to him and say when bills poured in from the represenall intents and purposes, her lord and that John Auders and I can never be tatives of every State, until 1,385 were

> "Then you do not love him?" 14 Fish 20

standing in the door-way.

symme freelighbors by their own matter, if I did for I'd learned to fight ders well enough to bear the burdens of results of our false system of finance, her loss and recover her spirits. life as his companion ?"

and leave us to ourselves. It was very it upon a par with greenbacks. This is a noble-looking boy, strongly resem-Then I'll take it for granted that you good of you to favor us with the inforthe kind of general legislation the bling his mother in looks and dispositrue poetry and passion can do, to you are."

"That's their own affair. I have beld his heart from the hour of their lover by surprise, and there consummate and gentleness reminded both parents office, after a brief pleasuring, as his So the sacrifice was made, though not tens itself upon all public enterprises meeting. And none, save himself, im- ing their mutual vows. On the long and son of their lost one.

then, taking two others each by the even excepting the two surviving dogs. Washington, D. C., April 19th.

hand, bounded up the steps and passed. Grace was radiantly happy in her terribe.

you purden me if I ask you a plain, whispered, so low he thought her hus- two years older than Elinor Norton, intelligent.

fancy?" answered John.

Good reader, can you tell?

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

of Congress as that of last Monday, was more than content with its inverse looking up, the visitor and his hostess ing in forty-five bills, and he appeared to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother was a mother when the superiord to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother was a effect upon the spirit and temper of the were surprised to see Nancy Shaddon about as fresh when he left off as when to her as an authority in all matters of did, for a mother's tenderness, the were to do such a brazen thing." "Mr. Malcolm, allow me to introduce in twenty-five or thirty apiece. Of the aside from business and politics, though resolved to win a more affectionate re- that she could hear it no longer, though eral times and checks it carefully. like her pap. I'd laugh to see the feiler Miss Dearie Shaddon, my ward," said whole number, about 750 were for relief, his remarks on any but the last-named gard from her benefactress, if effort and she had prepared herself to hear much all the items are correct, and she is just "How many wards have you?" quer- viduals or whole communities, or for profound. He was prosperous, and was But the trouble was in Mrs. Stoddard's feelings. borne in mind that had any other led the gentleman, as he proffered his the distressed country. It is a noticen. gradually amassing wealth, though not cold, reserved nature. She did not in-

"There, Dearie," said Grace, laughing, with greenbacks. The next step is to she had been her own.

are mistaken. But you have not mation, I assure you I am delighted if country wants, and if the extra session tion, as well as in mental characteris- she felt fully capable of mastering the I am grieved that you feel so about it, bestow grace and dignity on subjects of Congress keeps on in the same line, ties; but he had a generous nature, and same branches he was studying, and she for I realize what a debt I owe your which naturally seem lines "Grace is old enough to make her Grace accompanied her to the door the country will not object to having it dearly loved to befriend those younger was already determind to fit herself to kindness, and would be most thankful them." We have time and again met Size made one bad enough matrimonial the girl elenched her fist and shook it To go from the affairs of State to the or protection. Though much petted, he could, though in what way she had no "Hush! husb!" said Mr. Stocklard. State state specified in the affairs of State to the or protection. bargaro, the Lord known. But John's a defiantly in the air, while she laughter, as Shakers. good man, and there's no danger of him in a guitural paraxysm of satisfaction. a gallant Lothario from the far West, but I don't see any has drawn her, stands of satisfaction. In a guitural paraxysm of satisfaction as gallant Lothario from the far West, but I don't see any has drawn her, stands of satisfaction. In a guitural paraxysm of satisfaction as gallant Lothario from the far West, but I don't see any has drawn her, stands of satisfaction as gallant Lothario from the far west of satisfaction. wasting the property if he gots her. In the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant," she exclaimed, half and a gallant lother in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and so greater in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and she was very much in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life pleasant, she exclaimed, half and she was very much in the five years tirnt be and Lillian lived life. together, he never touched a foot of her libly. "Somebody has to marry John was, it is said, betrothed to a wealthy log that he was the only young gentle. are not usually. and his young ones, or he'll go to destruction. I'm nobody anyhow. I'll said, bearing the parties of any consequence. He had a very shadow alternating in this home, as in partner in a medical firm by and by.

Interest is the worm that reason of any consequence. He had a very shadow alternating in this home, as in partner in a medical firm by and by. after the adjournment of the Forty-fifth tender affection for his mother, whose others, while Frank entered college and which I think would be much pleasanter plains. It consumes against been better if that model son-in-law had Why need we linger, reader, you and Congress. But a brief residence in best feelings seemed to center in him, Elinor was sent to a fashionable school for you, after all." used some of the means at his disposal I, to describe courting and love-making Washington served to dispel the glamor and who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making Washington served to dispel the glamor and who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than ever describe courting and love-making who had been more than every describe courting and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and love-making who had been more than every described and lov for promoting his wife's comfort during scenes? Don't we know that every of love's young dream, and the recreant voted to him since the loss of her only the required time, each one completed so nonplussed by the situation that she tion is drawing interest from since the loss of her only the required time, each one completed so nonplussed by the situation that she couple when in love is a laughing stock swain, thinking to secure another lease daughter, a pale, gentle girl, whose blue the prescribed course and returned had left more of the conversation to her and the little that does not is being "Do I understand you to say that Mrs. for everybody except themselves? of single blessedness, made the extra eyes and fair hair contrasted no more home with a diploma certifying that husband than she usually did. "Yes, withdrawn by evil-doers to give place Showden and her brother-in-law are John Anders ground his teeth and spesion an excuse for non-fulfillment of strongly with his black curls and flash-they had passed certain examinations. Ellnor, a woman's place is the home, to that which will. The largest project themselves are the different of the first which will be a spesion an excuse for non-fulfillment of the first which will be a spesion an excuse for non-fulfillment of the first which will be a spesion and the first which will be a special with the first way and the first which will be a special with the first way and the first which will be a special with the first way and the first way a really sugaged 27 he asked, hesitat cursed his luck and abused his adverse his vows, and wrote his forces that the fate to his heart's content, but he had short intermission would not admit of disposition with his bold, brave, reso- ence between the two, for Frank's dishort intermession would be good sense to hide the keenest edge the good sense to hide "That's all. She has the charge of his engagement with Nancy Shaddon, Mahomet must go to the mountain," persuasion that Mrs. Stoddard had de- it had been thorough; but Elinor's had my health has become so poor I really interest. It is the greatest cursu enhis four little chicks and her own adopt of which the girl was so prompt to speak, ed child, and it seems only natural that Grace and George Malcolm that the packs her transcau and hastens to the Lily was when she left them, more than Frank intended to study law, and was while Frank is gone, the house will be race, every patriot of his country. wife of Alonzo Snowden had won and national capital, intent on taking her two years before, and in her mildness undecided whether to go at once into an quite deserted if you go too,"

ELINOR NORTON.

BY MARY SHANE SHITH.

who was nearly twelve at the time of "I loved you, but I could not conquer ber mother's premature death. for him to appear dignified, even on sional word of commendation.

didn't mean to eavesdrop, but I felt like what we need is a smaller Congress of a in accordance with her own fluancial what she most desired, and to gain answer Mrs. S. broke in: "Yes; but one-half belongs to John it might make you both happier if Pd larger country. Enough measures were ideas, which regarded speculation, rather which she would gladly have relin-Anders and his heirs. You see, their come in and tell you that John and I introduced on Monday to supply the than the slow accumulations of trade, quisbed her laxurious home for a poor be utterly shocked to know you think household expenses" so much; and is mother, who was my daughter, died a are to be married soon. He knows he wants of the nation for two or three as the best means of gaining wealth one. wants of the nation for two or three year ago. One-half this land I speak of can never get Gracie, and I've a notion hundred years to come. Among the hundred years to come. Among the fully to do all she continued patiently and faithwas here in her own right and must re- that she'd succeed no better as his wife rest were 175 financial measures, includ- fast the love of these things was chang- fully to do all she could to make Mrs. dered much over it, and felt that she main so till her youngest child is of than poor Lillian did. He loved Gracie, ing De La Matyr's proposition to issue Ing her nature. She did not notice that Stoddard's heart warm toward her, and did not want him to know of it till she or thought he did, but I told him she a billion of greenoacks, which, some she was fosing that enthusiasm for noble her tears were shed in secret, unsus had really made a beginning, when she ticlo in the "I see. But there's your other daugh. only said 'tah' when I taked about it to how, has not been received with the ter, Mrs. Snowden. Has she no lands ber the other day, and then he hung his serious consideration so important a serious of fancy and genins that had disserious consideration so important a land of the friend's looks and manner. He had by her to turn back, and would stand ceroing Shakspeare's women-"I see. But there's your other daugh. only said 'fah' when I talked about it to how, has not been received with the deeds and the refining and beautiful cre- pected by any but Frank, whose quick believed he would be sensible and not racy summary of the things said conserious consideration so important a thought some consideration so important a the said, head a long time, and at last he said, and against. Among the authors of the first are Coloridge and Jesoph Cook.

Trather guess not. She has a mind 'Dearle, will you marry me?' I studied A billion of dollars is a good deal of the latter especially uses very strong. of her ewn on most things, and she's a while, and then I thought to myself money. Mr. Stephens' bill for the retaken to working a lot of small tenants on that I wouldn't be imposed up in by any demption of subsidiary silver coin in orphan of her dearest friend was a self-distressed; but even he little guessed have to give up her cherished plans, for humanity has no other so precious the land in such a way that they will, in mother in-law, or anybody else for that greenbacks will certainly pass, and it is ish one. She would have resented as all the feelings that filled her heart, for the present at least. She turned to Mr. inheritance as Shakspeare's a measure sure to be of great relief to a an insuit the idea that she was pennri- he supposed that grief for the loss of her and Mrs. Stoddard and said, with much right. I never interfere with any of my own battles through great tribula- large class of business men in all parts ous and disliked the prospect of in- parents was the only thing that ever feeling: her plans, though I do sometimes think tion, and I said, 'Yes, John.' Then he of the country, whose daily receipts are creased expenditure, yet this was the made the brown eyes look dim and "If you really wish me to stay be even their favorites as "o put this ring on my finger, and I guess made up of small change, and who, truth. She thought the reason she gave heavy. At such times he was unusually cause you are lonely, and I can make earthy," as perfect representatives of

"you've explained enough. Go, now, get rid of the trade silver dollar, or put Frank Stoddard, the only child, was be was ambitious to enter as early as tives and look upon me with contempt, with its laws to their favor, and he or weaker than himself who needed help earn her own living as soon as she could I ever hope to repayimpetuous nature often led him into have a grand time, going everywhere awful fast."-Chicago Times, doing and saying things of which he and seeing everything;" but, in reali- How a Weman Keeps an Expense Booksoon repented. Taken altogether, he ty, she felt just as he did, and lonely was a pleasant companion for Elinor, enough was she, as well as his parents, begin to make up her expens who had always longed for a brother, when at last the young collegian, proud firmly resolved to put down every cont "Mrs. Smoother," he said, drawing straight and the past, and full of same starting straight and most happy, but as he led Nancy Shadhors with the past, and the past, and

CHAPTER IV.

"That's a fact," replied her husband, woman of thirty-five, commanding in valued member. She strove to live, lime in nature. her appearance and imperious in voice day by day, as her beloved mother And what of Elinor's fature? She $1 43 I had is $49 93, and $1 00, I lead "Then why can we not conquer and manner. Her black eyes were still would have wished her to do; and, con-still cherished the most carnest desire oughtn't to enter that, because what as bright as in youth and her glossy sclous of her dependent position, she to fit herself to earn her living, but she she returns it it'll go down. hair as abundant. By what strange in- tried to lighten the cares of all about realized now something of the difficul- $49 93, and what have I fluence she had been dominated when her and render herself as useful as posshe gave Mr. Stoddard the preference, sible. She soon became dear to Mr. thetic unture led her to prefer some or process which enables her to leave out psychologists must explain, for the rea- Stoddard, who had missed his gentle cupation that would enable her to bene- most of the items where a round sum is son is not very apparent. Probably her daughter more than any one supposed fit others while supporting herself, and involved, on the supposition that the strong, independent nature instinctive from his undemonstrative manner, and she therefore, after much deliberation "Six deliars and fourteen cents for meat." Mrs. Emerson, good soul, cried softly to that he has known you, never can be After all the efforts to shut out gen. ly though unccusciously revoted against she was not slow to perceive that he and consultation with an old friend of and ten cents for celery; as herself over her smoky kitchen stove as happy except as your chosen husband." eral legislation at this session of Conshe looked forward to the prospect of gress, we now behold the doors wide giving up the poorly-furnished home marry John Anders?"

"And my father said that I was to gress, we now behold the doors wide open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman, who owes me since open and a tremendous avalanche of the mikman are tills tumbled in. No such record for a plete contrast to his wife in most re- anticipate his wishes and perform any become a physician, single day was ever made in the history spects. He was small and slight, with little service that she thought would Mr. Stoddard received the proposal either $15.60 or $16.50, and I don't relight hair and eyes, and a quick, ner- gratify him; and she felt richly reward- with laughter and mild ridicule.

be began. Some others managed to get art, literature and general intelligence, knowledge grieved her deeply, and she And so she went on, till Elinor felt originally. She goes over the list save in one shape or another, of private indi-profound. He was presperous, and was But the trouble was in Mrs. Stoddard's feelings. woman dared to do in all things as hand. "I saw five as I came up the bie fact, however, that very few war as rapidly as his wife desired, for she tentionally repulse the young girl; but wounded, told her that he really did finds that the total is $44 25 and that claims were offered, while amongst the was ambitious and of a daring, adventhere heart did not open to receive her not see how they could get along withtie she ought to have $5.56. Then the "This is only my sixth," was the bills presented are a number of proposihave been among the first to denounce her for the daring.

Inaghing answer. "New you have seen the slow, cautious policy of as she gave her a home and an education of such legislation entirely. Taken altogether, the outlook for a her husband. She was a poor girl when then bappily discovers that she could then happily discovers that she could then happily discovers that she could be mistaking a $2.50 gold night. session extending far into the warm she married Mr. S., but had she been could be expected of her-indeed more; he came back, at least,

"Sir," and the stranger hitched his he's gone after the license, for he's dead under the present law, are numble, with-father advised, or to go to Europe first, without real regret, for this quiet, should be opposed. Our industries are no as his mother wished. As usual, how-Then with your permission, Captain, agined the severe struggle he endured journey here, as was quite natural, she disposition to leave it for the society of ever, her will prevailed, and, after only and the superficial education she had pendent, and our very national exist-"You'd better ask the old woman," miser and misanthrope. If the secret traveling companions, among whom coarse, rude boys of his own age; but a few weeks spent at home, the young received had not been able to dwarf her ence is endangered by this curse of was the evasive yet convenient rehistory of every grasping, avaricious were several Congressmen, picked up at he was very social in his feelings, and traveler set out to see for himself the mind, though it had not developed it from its fangs, if you would enjoy the mortal could be laid bare. I fange that the was very social in his feelings, and traveler set out to see for himself the mind, though it had not developed it from its fangs, if you would enjoy the mortal could be laid bare, I fancy that different points en route, and beguiled often, since his gentle sister's death, had wonders and heauties of the Old World, as it should have done; but she meant products of your own labor and The "old woman" had been so serious the fact would be revealed that, after all, the tedium of the days by a recital of longed for some one to take her place in Of course he no longer imagined that to learn something more solid than had ly disappointed in Alonzo Snowden, the hard and erring are had as they are her little romance and the happy sequel his home. So, when Eliner came, his his foster sister could accompany him been provided her, and, though she had Money." that she was disposed to be wary of this because of the relentless fate that has expected. Arriving at Washington, she new and equally strange soitor. But turned the sweetened balm of their life registered at the same hotel which sheltered her betrothed, and, if accounts be was fond of all such romantic stories as wished that she could, for their childish apart a portion of each day to faithful "was her own mistress, which was more Patient reader, is it necessary that we true, succeeded in surprising him bethan could be declared of most women." enter minutely into a wedding scene true, succeeded in surprising nim be more could an enger, ardent young soul. They had retained their old sounds for young the could be retained their old sympathy. And the land agent left the old couple, You remember all about Grace's first somewhat surprised herself! To make require than the opportunity to comfort each other's society, their old sympathy somewhat surprised herself! To make one from travel among the most culti-vated peoples of the Old World, from observation and from a keen apprecia-paper, and with a blunt pencil, strikes vous manner, that made it impossible ed by his look of approval and occafor him to appear dignified, even on signal word of commendation.

Mrs. Stoddard was horrified and insaid 'if I'd give him a dime be could dignant "to think that a girl in her give me a half dollar, which would sovereign. She would have died for more to each other than we are at prescrats alike joined with the few Greentent that his wife should control all dotent that his wife should control "Excuse me," exclaimed a voice, and, tucky, won the championship by work. much distasteful thought and care. He not beloved by Mrs. S. as she was by know if she knew that "no one in their cents for celery—no, I put that do sections in this one tract, Mr. Emer- "I heard you and the gentleman talk- weather is now very promising. It is possessed, like Mrs. Norton, of a fortune so the poor girl strove in vain to win Elinor gave him a grateful look, but baby a trade-dollar to cut its game son?" said the agent, as the good wife ing of marriage and John Anders. I becoming more and more apparent that of her own, she would have invested it real, motherly affection, which was before she could command herself to On the whole she has come within right mind from her trouble.

As long as Frank was at home, Elinor still think that, when you no longer Charles Lamb's defense of those who which for years has been discriminating But Mrs. Stoddard was not one to do pursued her studies with him, as she need me, I ought to prepare myself to plishment of their purposes, in the "What?" he asked, as though his "Not as I have loved, and not as I against the small merchant and in favor anything by halves; and, having ac- had been very well taught at home; and be of some use in the world. What war of love. might love; but you can't expect of the speculator, Mr. Stephens' bill cepted the care of the young girl, she these days passed more pleasantly than good, pure women have done with credit rules of warmed over victuals to be as fresh and wipes out this distinction, and places treated her as well, so far as comfort any others. But it was not very long to themselves, and benefit to others, can habitual feelings crossed; "My daughter is engaged to John An"My daughter is engaged to John An"There Description and display were concerned, as though before Frank had to return to school, be no disgrace to me to attempt, and if subject handled, that their form some a which the concerned as though before being and display were concerned, as though before being an addisplay were concerned, as though before being an addisplay were concerned, as though before being an addisplay were concerned, as though before being a concerned by the where he was fitting for college, which there are those who misjudge my mo- loses them no honor; delica I cannot avoid it, nor do I think their in their case alone, seems delighted to young yet; wait a while, and maybe.

after a night's rest, and repaired to the nuptials at the paternal home. These at one story short, in less than a weak and protect a solitary, sorrowing girl for each other's troubles, and interest in the salendid form bounds was startled the other day at bouse of Grace, meeting John Anders at the splendid farm-house that was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the schools was startled the other day at she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was she, with her drosseas, was "homeward like this, who appealed to all that was each other's pursuits, and even Elinor the sheet was the sh on the way, whose glowering looks her own abode were conducted on a she, with her trosscan, was "homeward the many and heroic in the boyish heart. felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from one bright felt that it was hard to think she could the answer she got from the bound," breathing maledletions upon omeliow indicate i his identity.

"He's not engaged to that charming the score and in general and her recreant lover to page upon Mt. Blane, or the picture of an ostrich, and the teacher to particular, and announcing her intensive many and herote in the bound," breathing maledictions upon many and herote in the bound, heart the society of his mother and his adoption.

"He's not engaged to that charming the picture of an ostrich, and the teacher in particular, and announcing her intensive many and herote in the boyish heart.

But, though Frank loved books and never hope to gaze upon Mt. Blane, or the picture of an ostrich, and the teacher in particular, and announcing her intensive many and herote in the boyish heart.

But, though Frank loved books and the streets of Rome with eager described its great strength and power. wildow, else he wouldn't wear a second city, headed by Alonzo, senior. Mrs. Showden was not so corpulent as forlike that, I'll warrant!" exclaimed MalShowden was not so corpulent as forloaned him at different periods of their merly, her advancing years and active in particular, and announcing her intention to sue him forthwith for $20,000 ded sister, he was not indifferent to outloaned him at different periods of their

merly, her advancing years and active

in particular, and announcing her intention to sue him forthwith for $20,000 ded sister, he was not indifferent to outloaned him at different periods of their amounted in

in particular, and announcing her intention to sue him forthwith for $20,000 ded sister, he was not really the only bird upon which a man could ride only bird upon which a man cou Snowden was not so corpulent as formerly, her advancing years and active front of Grace's residence, and was met by a troop of rollicking children, two of whom he caught in his arms and carried up the graveled pathway and deried up the graveled pathway and deposited them under the willows, and posited them under the willows, and then, taking two others each by the

Che New Northwes

A Journal for the People.

Devoted to the Interests of Huma Independent in Politics and Religion. Alive to all Live Ismes, and Thoroughle Radical in Opposite and Expecting the Wickey

Correspondents writing over assumed; time Editor, or no attention will be given to the

It is a touching sight to see a mount Mrs. Stoddard was a fine-looking Of this family Ellinor soon became a tion of the benutiful in art and the subwhich is about $15 more than sue has take in the addition. Acting upon the been mistaking a $2.50 gold piece for a ty-six cents of a balance, and the says, is close enough, and she enters in very imppy till she remembers, jus-

> SHARSPEARE'S WOMEN -A late ar were sort of a guiding star to us;

Government officials state that of the recent large numbers of orders for in-vestment in United States four per centbonds, at least one-third were made women. It would be a just and atte state of things for every one of our Federal securities to be taken and held by the 20 000,000 women of our country. from taxation, and women are deprived

Lady Anne Blunt, the grand-daughter